

Army History Research Grant

Darryl Dymock

1735146

Army History Research Grant

- A history of the Chalkies 1966-1973

Movies Among Proposals

A SWEET USE OF ADVERSITY

The Australian Army Educational Service
in World War II and its impact on Australian Adult Education

DAVID BYMOCK

NATIONAL VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING RESEARCH PROGRAM

RESEARCH REPORT

Refining models and approaches in continuing education and training

Stephen Billett, Sarojni Chay,
Darryl Dymock, Ray Smith,
Ann Kelly, Mark Tyler,
Amanda Henderson, Jason Lewis
and Fred Seem

NCVER Research Report

Australian Government
Department of Industry

'Hustling Hinkler is mandatory reading for everyone who loves flight ... a gripping story of an intrepid country boy who followed his dreams.'

RICHARD DE CRESPIGNY, author of the multi-award winning QF32

★ HUSTLING ★ HINKLER

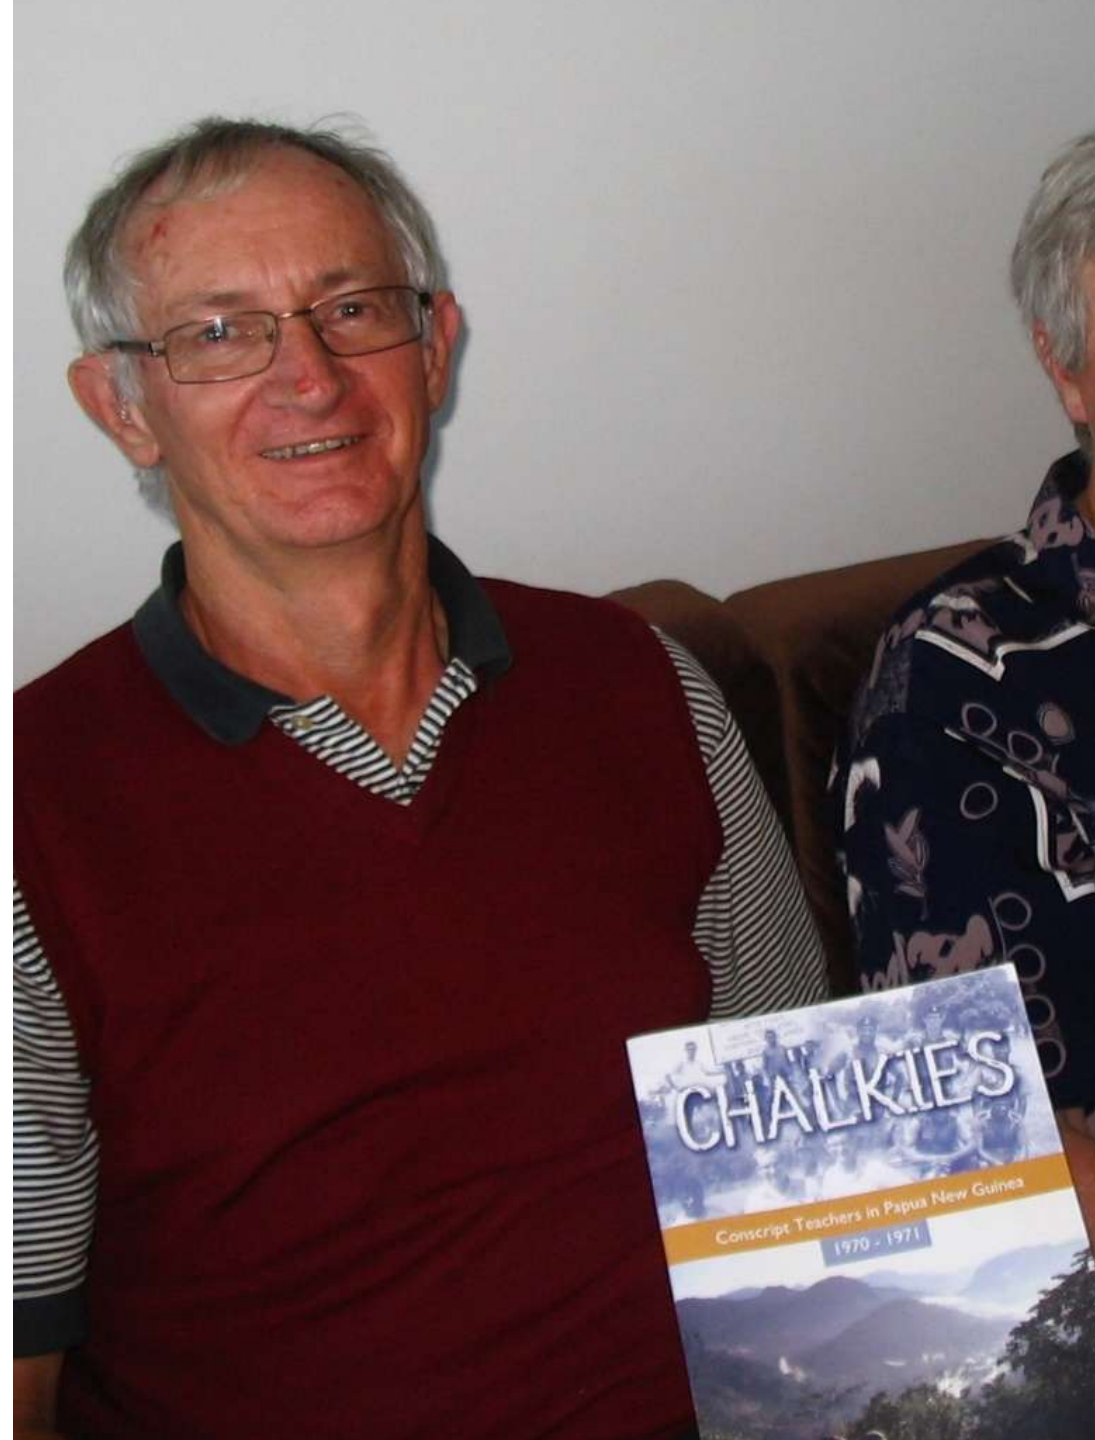

THE SHORT TUMULTUOUS LIFE OF A
TRAILBLAZING AUSTRALIAN AVIATOR

D.R. DYMCK

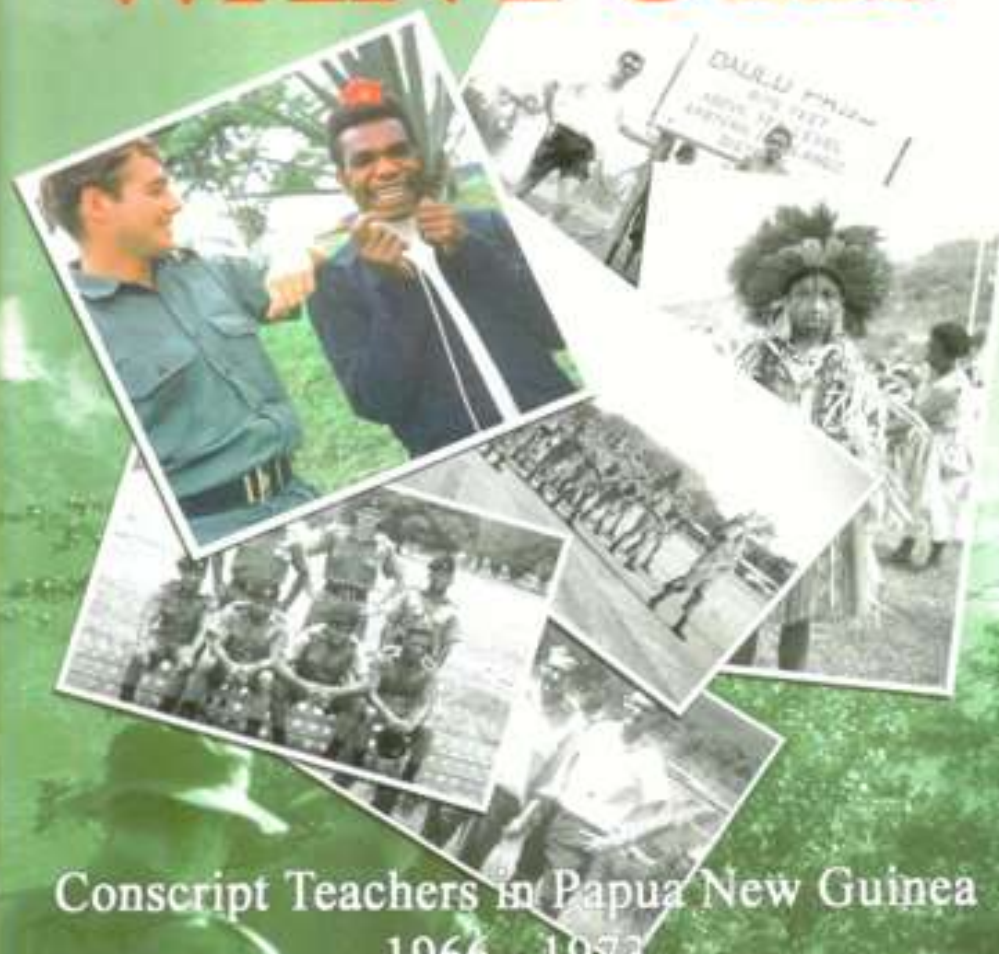

Army History Research Grant

- 1. How did the RAAEC educational scheme in PNG 1966-73 originate?
- 2. What were the intended purposes of the scheme?
- 3. How was the scheme implemented and did this change over the period it operated, and if so why?
- 4. What sorts of experiences did National Servicemen who served in this role have at the various barracks and across the different years of the scheme's operation?
- 5. To what extent were the purposes of the scheme met?

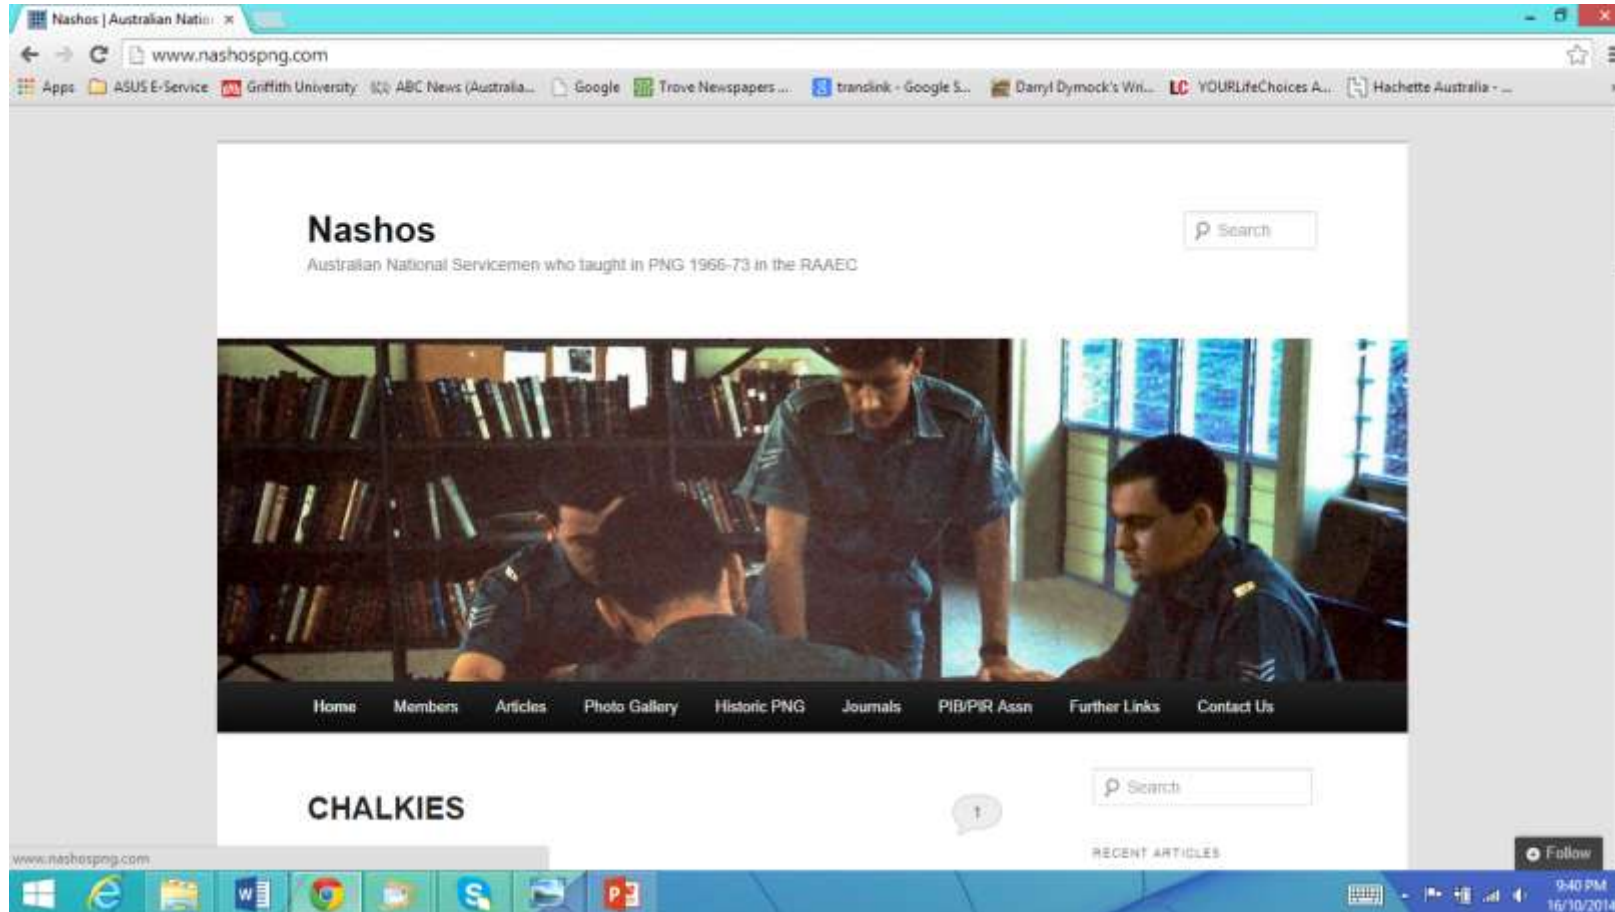

ARMY WANTOKS

Conscript Teachers in Papua New Guinea
1966 - 1973

IAN OGSTON

Website

Reference Group

- Ian Ogston
- Greg Ivey
- Terry Edwinsmith
- Norm Hunter
- Greg Farr

Eastern Communication Association

Bowman, N. D., Hallett, J., & Boyan, A. (2012, April). Squid or Chalkie? The role of self-identity and selective perception in processing tendentious Humor. Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the Eastern Communication Association, Boston-Cambridge.

Why the Chalkies hate the Squids!

Nicholas David Bowman, WVU

Jennifer Hallett, YHC

Andrew Boyan, Albion College

Contact

Darryl Dymock

drdymockwriter@bigpond.com

